HOPE AND FRESH STARTS IN THE NEW YEAR OF 2026

Dear FUMC Family,

welcome to a new year in which we are called to practice hope. Our Bishop roots this theme in Psalm 130:5: “I wait for the Lord; my soul waits, and in his word, I hope.” Just as the Psalmist waits with expectation, I believe each of us carries hopes for something new or something better in 2026. In the same way, Christmas is the hope the world longed for: the Lord coming to dwell among us. As Bishop Dan Schwerin reminds us, Christ’s coming “in the flesh is hopeful for humanity.”

Beginning a new year is exciting. We have twelve months of opportunities ahead of us—Fifty-two Sundays to worship, to grow in our relationship with God, and to make new disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. It is all before us, and I am truly excited about the work I have seen God doing among us.

In 2025, I witnessed prayers being answered. One highlight was our prayers for new members to join our church. God heard us. Let me share a testimony about something I had never heard before: the phrase “church shopping.” Last year, two people visited our church and told me they were looking for a church home. I thanked them and invited them to stay for worship, explaining that our service time had changed from 9:30 to 10:15. They went for coffee and returned for the service. Afterward, one of them told our Evangelist that she had been moved to tears during the preaching. Later, she told me, “Pastor, we were church shopping—and we will come back.” And they did. They have not stopped coming since.

Friends, this story reflects the presence of God among us. Only God can touch hearts, restore hope, and give us inner peace.

This year, I hope to see more of these powerful movements of the Holy Spirit in our church. I hope to see fresh beginnings in our lay groups—gathering to pray, study Scripture, and grow in fellowship. I hope to see our Women’s and Men’s groups deepen their ministries and engage in intentional evangelism. I hope to see a Children’s Choir take shape and more youth participating in worship and service.

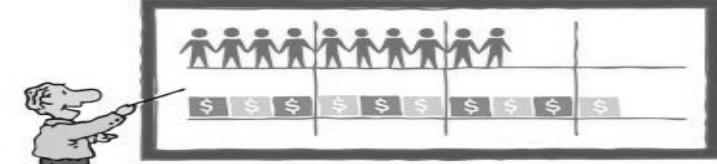

I do not know what you hope for in 2026, but as our Bishop challenges us to practice hope, I invite you to share your hopes with us. Together, we can seek God’s help and strengthen one another as we walk forward in faith. Our church has long been a beacon of ministry in this community. If we desire to do even more, we must seek God’s wisdom and guidance.

Samuel Smiles once wrote, “Hope is the companion of power, and mother of success; for who so hopes strongly has within him the gift of miracles.”

May hope be visible in you, in me, and in all of us. And may that hope lead to God-given success in every area of our church’s life.

Blessings in this New Year of 2026,

Fernando Candumbo de Castro
